FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Day Four: 21st Navajo Nation Council winter session

Council thanks President Shirley for signing legislation for emergency funding

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – The 21st Navajo Nation Council convened for its fourth day of deliberation and debate during its 2008 winter session today Jan. 31. The Council has been working especially hard to continue passing legislation that will affect communities on the Navajo Nation.

On Wednesday, the Council issued a directive to the Navajo Nation President, the tribe's Controller, and the Office of Management & Budget to issue checks to Chapters for emergency relief.

Council Delegate Amos Johnson (Forest Lake) thanked the Navajo President this morning for signing the legislation that would appropriate funds for this emergency situation. The Council appreciates the cooperation of the Executive Branch in helping the Navajo People.

A complete copy of the winter session agenda and supporting documents are available online at www.navajonationcouncil.org. A link to a copy of an updated annotated agenda is available below.
